

HOW WILL YOU MAKE AN IMPACT

CONTRIBUTE, COLLABORATE AND SUCCEED WITH A CAREER AT GOLDMAN SACHS

The Goldman Sachs Scholarship for Excellence (SFE) is awarded to students who embody our Business Principles, which are fundamental to our long-term success and set the standard for everything we do. Upon starting their summer internship, SFE recipients will be awarded up to $15,000.*

Eligible students should be:

- Undergraduate juniors or sophomores
- Pursuing a 2017 summer internship
- Black, Hispanic/Latino or Native American

For questions regarding the application process, contact GoldmanSachsSFE@gs.com.

*This amount represents the gross amount of the award and may be subject to tax withholding. Junior SFE recipients will be awarded $15,000 and sophomore SFE recipients will receive $10,000.

GOLDMAN SACHS SCHOLARSHIP FOR EXCELLENCE

APPLICATION CHECKLIST:

To be considered for the SFE, you must complete the following steps:

1. Complete your 2017 Summer Analyst application at goldmansachs.com/careers. Candidates must complete their internship application in order to be considered for the SFE.
2. Submit an application for the Scholarship for Excellence through our events portal at gs.com/careers/events. Search under "Diversity" events to apply.
3. Select applicants who move forward in our summer internship interview process will receive the opportunity to record a virtual response to the following questions:
 - a. Which of our 14 Business Principles resonates most with you personally, professionally or academically? Please share how you have exemplified this principle through your experiences.
 - b. How will you embody the business principle you selected throughout your summer internship and as a campus ambassador of the firm?

APPLICATION DEADLINE:

December 31 by 11:59 p.m. ET

Candidates are encouraged to submit their application for the SFE along with their internship application, as decisions will be made on an ongoing basis (subject to the status of the internship application).
