The MAcc program places a strong emphasis on analytical thinking, communication skills and professionalism. Our nationally-ranked faculty, including two former academic fellows at the SEC, combine pioneering research and dynamic instruction to engage students in helping to shape the future of accounting.

Career Development
MAcc graduates accept exciting career positions in public accounting, industry, nonprofit and government. The demand for master’s graduates has increased by 11% since 2014. Over the course of a 40-year career, a CPA can earn as much as $1 million more than a non-certified accountant.

MAcc Areas of Emphasis
- Accounting Information Systems
- Financial/Audit
- Tax

Attend Full-Time or Part-Time
Students can pursue the MAcc program in either a full-time or part-time format. Full-time students complete the program in two semesters (8 months), taking primarily daytime courses. Part-time students have access to courses during the evenings, can work full-time during the program and graduate in four semesters (24 months).

We’re ranked the #8 best accounting program in the West by Public Accounting Report.
Our CPA pass rate is 18% higher than the national average.
The Big Four, Grant Thornton, BDO, a host of regional and local firms as well as industry and government actively recruit our students.
You’ll have support from a dedicated academic advisor and career coaches during the program and throughout your career search.
