

Fall 2020 Undergrad Update

May 28, 2020

Campus will be open Fall 2020

- We are preparing to allow for in-person instruction while maintaining a focus on the health and safety of our students, faculty, staff, and community.
- We will need to be flexible as the COVID-19 virus could change course at any time.
- We will follow the color-coded system laid out by the State of Utah

State of Utah Color-Coded System

High Risk	Moderate Risk	Low Risk	New Normal Risk
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• General public takes extreme precautions• 6 feet social distancing• Leave home for essentials only• Limit to groups of 10	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• General public takes extreme precautions• 6 feet social distancing• Leave home infrequently• Limit to groups of 20	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• General public takes reasonable precautions• 6 feet social distancing• Limit to groups of 50• Limit travel	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• General public takes reasonable precautions• No group limits

Download at coronavirus.utah.gov/Utah-leads-together

Specific Plans are Under Development

- Repopulating campus
- Monitoring for incidences
- Containing potential outbreaks
- Temporarily reclosing, if necessary
- Expanded measures to contact trace and conduct proactive testing, implemented in partnership with state and local government
- Guidelines for colleges and universities, including face coverings, physical distancing, and population densities of residence halls, dining facilities, and classrooms

What You Can Expect

- Smaller classes with safe physical distancing
- More sessions throughout the day and evening
- Hybrid classes that allow for in-person and online instruction
- Adapting travel plans to provide networking with world-class businesses and your fellow students
- Lab, studio, interactive and creative offerings for small groups
- Use of virtual tools that allow students to work in pairs or small groups
- Adjustments to campus living, dining, study and recreational amenities to promote public health

Frequent, Transparent Communication

- Most up-to-date information available on the website including past webinars, FAQs and Chat: Eccles.link/Fall2020
- Weekly Webinars on Thursday from 1-2 pm through June and July
- Regular e-mail updates as announcements are made

